The festival of the Methodists occurs next week.

The Columbia made three trips on Decoration day.

The Twilight has discontinued her trips to Florence.

Rev Mr. Simon will preach at the Methodist Church next Sunday.

The Columbia now leaves Mill street wharf on the down trip at 7 A. M. instead of 7:15 A. M.

The Bristol Rolling Mill, which had to shut down about a week ago in consequence of a break in some of the machinery, resumed work again yesterday morning.

The St. Mark's Catholic Church fair opened at Cabene's Hall on last Monday evening. A handsome display of fancy and other articles is made. It is being largely attended.

Charles T. Ireddell, Cashier of the Farmers' National Bank, has been ill for several weeks, and his many friends and acquaintances will regret to learn that his condition is quite serious.

Edward Peoples, a resident of Otter street, while crossing the railroad track near the station last Thursday evening, was struck by one of the rapid transit trains and instantly killed.

The bottling establishment of James Pine was broken into by thieves last Saturday morning and a large quantity of his stock carried off. This is the third time within the past two years he has been thus visited.

Thomas Margerum, who was employed at Watson's Fifth-wheel establishment, died suddenly on Tuesday of pneumonia. His illness was only of a few days duration. He was a member of the order of Red Men and of Fire Company No. 2.

John McOwen, on last Saturday fell from his building which is being demolished to make way for the new railroad tracks. The distance he fell was about fifteen feet. He remained insensible for a considerable length of time. His injuries are not serious.

No place is represented upon the Pennsylvania Railroad Company more fully, perhaps, than Bristol. All along the road between Philadelphia to Jersey City Bristolians are to be met with in various capacities doing their work faithfully and well. Quite a number who began at the very bottom of the ladder have worked themselves up to high and responsible positions.

J. A. Emerick & Co., of Philadelphia, who recently purchased the lower half of Burlington Island, have rented it for the purpose, reserving a portion of about ten acres of grove and a ten acre field, to rent for excursion purposes. They are now engaged in digging on this property a large quantity of fine moulding sand for foundry purposes, giving employment to a number of Bristolians.

James Kelly's right hand man, young Ben Kelly, met with an adventure on Sunday which nearly proved a catastrophe. He drove the horse and wagon up to the mill-pond on some errand upon which he was sent, and took with him his little brother and sister. While Ben was about the wagon a few minutes the youngsters backed into the mill pond, upset the vehicle and spilled themselves out. Fortunately the children were not hurt severely, although they were pretty badly scared and somewhat bruised.

At an open camp fire of the Grand Army Post, on Thursday evening of last week, in addition to the good time the veterans and their visitors had in demolishing the luxuries of a bounteous supper, the presentation of two handsome silk flags by the lady friends of the organization. These flags were described in last week's GAZETTE. The presentation speech was made by one of the ladies, Mrs. Garwood, whose husband is a member of the post. The occasion was quite interesting and the organization is very much pleased by this handsome evidence of the favor in which it is held by the ladies.

There are a number of cases of smallpox at Trenton.

A large number of tramps were in Langhorne last Sunday.

Forty-five men are on the pay roll of the Quakertown foundry.

A new building and loan association is about to be started at Tullytown.

T. P. Otter, the Doylestown artist, had a sale of plaques at Newtown, last Tuesday.

Henry Lovett, of Falls, is announced as a Democratic candidate for Prothonotary.

There are fewer inmates at the almshouse now than for many years—138 is the number.

Mr. Joseph Smith, of Chester, by one half of his seine in the Jersey channel on Saturday secured 15,000 herring.

A number of Bucks county carpenters are engaged at Disston's, at Tacomy, with prospects of work until Christmas.

The next meeting of the Bucks County Agricultural Society, will be held at Sharon Park, sometime in September.

It is stated at the office of the company that the Pennsylvania railroad is carrying more passengers now than at any time since the war.

The Norristown Times says that farmers in the vicinity of Newtown are purchasing Philadelphia street dirt for a fertilizer. It is shipped by rail.

The Bucks County Temperance Alliance meets at Johnson's Hall, Hulmeville, on Friday, June 16th. The evening session will be addressed by General Louis Wagner, of Philadelphia.

Neshaminy Falls Grove was formally opened for the season, by the reunion of the Bensalem public schools, on Saturday, the 27th ult. Addresses by Gen. Davis, George Lear and Judge Watson were among the interesting events of the occasion.

The Doylestown Democrat sorrowfully remarks that "although the Republicans are divided to-day, they may not remain so." It also proclaims that in certain contingencies "thousands of Democrats will be driven from the support of their ticket."

The passenger boat Gratitude, now plying between Walnut street wharf Philadelphia, Tacomy and Bridesburg, will be disposed of, it is said, in a few days to Captain J. Miller, of Florida, to run between Tampa Bay and Cedar Keys.

The steamer Neptune, formerly of Philadelphia, is now running on that route. Another boat will replace the Gratitude.

Princeton College Commencement week will open on Saturday, June 17th, by the Calceolus Games; on Sunday, Dr. McCosh will deliver the baccalaureate sermon and dedicate the Marchand Chapel; Monday will be class day; on Tuesday the gymnastic exhibition will take place, with the Lynde debate and the Sophomore reception; Wednesday will close the exercises of the 135th Annual Commencement.

Annie Howlings, aged 17 years, and Maggie Callahan, aged 16 years, residing at Moorestown, Burlington county, N. J., were committed to the Mount Holly jail, on Monday, by Justice Lippencott, of Moorestown, on a charge of malicious mischief. It seems that George Reeves had often promised them a ride in his buggy. On Saturday night, as George was engaged in tending a cigar store, the girls took his horse and wagon from the stable and indulged in a ride around the county. On Saturday George engaged an officer to find his horse and wagon, and he found the girls driving along the road near Riverton. They were arrested and driven to Moorestown, when they were committed. It is thought George will regret the arrest, as the girls will probably make disagreeable developments.

A new style of postal card with a flexible flap, which conceals the message from prying eyes, is being pressed upon the attention of the postal committees in both the Senate and House, with the hopes of securing its adoption. The owners of the patent assure the authorities that it will cost no more than the present open card, and that the present rate of one cent can be retained for it. The only objection to it is that it could be made the vehicle for scurrilous messages, but the same objection applies to sealed letters. "The private message card," as it is called, is an improvement, and ought to be adopted.

The marked feature of ancient bridge building was the thickness of the piers. The famous old bridge at Verona had a pier 39 feet thick, though only 11 feet high. In old London Bridge the piers were waterway and water was carried in the waterway.

The London Builder thinks that the modern tendency is to make the piers too light. Of late years no country in Europe has seen more remarkable bridge work than Italy. Signor Mosca's bridge over the Dora, at Turin, is a masterpiece of construction.

Maj-Gen. George H. Crossman died on Sunday evening at his residence, in West Delancey place, Philadelphia. He was born in Taunton, Mass., in 1798. He was appointed to the Military Academy in the year 1819, and was in active service over fifty years.

Several libraries in the United States report a decrease in the reading of fiction by the young of from 65 to 85 per cent. This decrease is due chiefly to the efforts of teachers and librarians to give school children better taste in reading.

The Pennsylvania railroad has, it is estimated $30,000,000 invested in workshops and machinery at Altoona.

The indications at Pittsburg were that the great strike among the ironworkers would be commenced to-day.

"Backwash,"

Quick, complete cure, all annoying Kidney, Bladder and Urinary Diseases. Dr. Druggists.

An English scholar during a holiday excursion in the Harz Mountains subjected himself one day to a severe physical strain which produced a singular mental disturbance.

He was on his feet from morning till night, and in the course of the day's wanderings made several arduous ascents, taking no rest and neither eating nor sleeping. At night when he reached a place where he could supply his needs he was unable, to his great astonishment, to recollect a single word of the German language, although he ordinarily spoke it with fluency. His memory did not fail him in any other respect, he knew his own language as well as ever, and recalled perfectly all the incidents of the day. As soon as he had thoroughly rested and had eaten the food which he had procured by signs, his German returned to him completely.

Another sudden death.—Robert N. Murray, for more than a generation the proprietor of the Bustleton Hotel, died suddenly, of heart disease, at his residence on the afternoon of the 22nd ult., in the 60th year of his age. He was a much respected and useful citizen, and took an active part in all matters in relation to his town and ward. He was a model innkeeper and understood his business so well as to have realized about $50,000, with which he was to retire to private life shortly. He leaves a widow and two children, daughters, one of whom is married to Joseph A. Brown, Esq., a member of Common Council. The death of Mr. Murray will be much regretted and his loss felt in the community in which he spent most of his life.

A London lecturer on female attire said recently: "Dressed as women are the less exercise they take the better for health. In fact, they are seldom fit to stand erect or walk a block, but should be rolled around or carried on a palanquin. Not one woman in 10,000 has room inside her clothes for the rise and fall of the ribs in breathing, and there is not one in 10,000 whose vital organs are not displaced by external pressure. While this is so, the less exercise the better."

Ten prisoners escaped from the Lancaster county prison during the dinner hour on Thursday of last week. They were among the most notorious criminals confined in the prison. Their terms of sentence ranged from three to nineteen years. Farmers near the city and people on the road did not know what to make of the rough looking fellows tearing at their full speed across the fields; but they soon knew. One of them was found in Lancaster city.

Knowledge addresses these alarming words to the modern boulevard writers who make horrid puns and their equally incalculable audience who enjoy them: "It is not, perhaps, commonly known that a tendency to make puns is regarded by many students of mental physiology as a sign of cerebral disease."

The New Jersey State medical society has unanimously condemned the action of the New York State medical society recognizing the Homeopaths.

Duty to Others.

Gloucester, July 26, 1879.

This is to let the people know that I, Anna Maria Kridler, wife of Tobias Kridler, am now past seventy-four years of age. My health has been very bad for some years past; I was troubled with weakness, bad cough, dyspepsia, great debility, and constipation of the bowels. I was so miserable I could hardly eat anything. I heard of Hop Bitters and was resolved to try them. I have only used two bottles, and I feel wonderfully good, well and strong again. My bowels are regular, my appetite good, and I could all go on. I feel so well that I think it my duty to let the people know, as so many know how bad I was, what the medicine has done for me, so they can cure themselves with it. ANNA M. KRIDER, wife of Tobias Kridler.

The home for working girls in London, called Garfield House, at the formal opening of which a fortnight ago Minister Lowell presided, contains thirty-nine bed rooms, a dining-room, a sitting-room and a library, and each occupant will pay for her accommodation from 65 cents to $1 a week.

HEARTILY RECOMMENDED.—Don't condemn a good thing because you have been deceived by worthless nostrums. Parker's Ginger Tonic has cured many in this section of nervous disorders, and we recommend it heartily to such sufferers.—News.

Messrs. Wm. Rust & Sons, Druggists, New Brunswick, N. J. Since boyhood I have been troubled with Catarrh and Hay Fever, and have been unable to obtain permanent relief until I used Ely's Cream Balm, which has cured me. After a few days' use I could sleep all night. I feel better, and I am able to do my work. I feel so well that I think it my duty to let the people know, as so many know how bad I was, what the medicine has done for me, so they can cure themselves with it. ANNA M.
